INTRODUCTION. Play is so important to optimal child development that it has been recognized by the United Nations High Commission for Human Rights as a right of every child. 1 This birthright is challenged by forces including child labor and exploitation practices, war and neighborhood violence, and the limited resources available to children living in poverty.

The Importance of Play in Promoting Healthy Child

Child development entails the biological, psychological and emotional changes that occur in human beings between birth and the conclusion of adolescence, as the individual progresses from dependency to increasing autonomy. It is a continuous process with a predictable sequence, yet having a unique course for every child. It does not progress at the same rate and each stage is affected by the ...
