Note that the operations defined by equations (3) and (4) become the usual operations of addition and multiplication when restricted to the real numbers: $(x_1, 0) + (x_2, 0) = (x_1 + x_2, 0)$, $(x_1, 0)(x_2, 0) = (x_1x_2, 0)$. The complex number system is, therefore, a natural extension of the real number system.
