Quench Not the Spirit I Thessalonians 5:19 In our study of the ministry of the Holy Spirit we understand that every believer is indwelt by the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation. We also find that there are several direct commands from the Scripture concerning the Spirit of God and believers. In this study we want to look at one of them.

But the love of a true worshipper is different, because it comes from a heart so amazed by God and His wonders that it cannot be extinguished. It will not allow itself to be quenched, because that would heap insult upon the One it loves. It refuses to be dampened, discouraged or distracted in its quest to glorify God.

So, in front of the command not to grieve the Spirit, behind the command not to grieve the Spirit, we have these exhortations to be kind and gracious to other people. In other words, live out the fruit of the Holy Spirit. So, my answer to Mick's question about this quenching of the Spirit is, first, that when we quench him, we are not sovereign.

1. For the essence of the deity; see John 4, God is a Spirit. It is not so taken here. 2. For the third Person in the Trinity, the Holy Ghost, as in 1 Jn. 5:7, The Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit. This is not meant here. 3. For the gifts of the Spirit. And thus it is meant here. Quench not the gifts and graces of the Spirit.
